

Our Vision

- NCMA's vision is for all of our members to provide the highest standards of care and learning for children
- Being a member of NCMA demonstrates your commitment to delivering quality childcare and learning

What we offer

Developing you

- Through a range of online training options and workshops to get you started in childminding and allow you to develop professionally
- Opportunities to help shape your professional association via product advisory groups, focus groups, regional forums and volunteering

Supporting your business every day

- A dedicated childminder information line and email facility to help you with your queries and questions
- MyNCMA, the members-only section of www.ncma.org.uk providing you with instant access to a vast library of resources tailored to childminders
- A range of business products and publications, especially designed for childminders to support your work
- Access to a vacancy matching service and advice on how to market your business

Keeping you up-to-date

- Through our industry-leading magazine, delivered straight to your door, six times a year
- Via regular e-newsletters with up-to-date information and resources to keep to help you in your work
- With connections to childcare and learning experts helping you to develop your career and professional practice

Representing you – Your voice is heard

- Promoting your voice at local and national level, ensuring your concerns are understood, helping to shape the regulations governing your work
- Listening to what's important to you, influencing NCMA's work and direction
- Championing your profession, building awareness and recognition of the childminding sector and the excellent role you play in early years care and learning

Protecting you 24/7

- An enhanced, member-only legal package gives you the advice you need, whenever you need it, 24/7
- Tailored public liability insurance at an unrivalled rate, underwritten by Royal & Sun Alliance Insurance plc

Saving you money – exclusive member discounts

- Save up to 50 per cent on NCMA products and publications at www.ncma.org.uk/shop
- Money off high street stores, supermarkets and theme parks with NCMASaver, your exclusive member discount scheme
- Customised home, car and travel insurance policies, tailored to childminders' needs

Connecting you

- With a range of NCMA accredited networks, groups and associations, providing you with peer support, networking opportunities and access to your professional community
- Conferences, forums, volunteer groups and other events building relationships with fellow early years professionals

